

Part 2. Story

Time: about 40 min

Number of words : 140-190

Type: Semi-Formal

Topic:

Write a story starting with the phase:

The moment I got off the train I realized I was at the wrong station.

Your story must include:

- a meeting with a stranger
- a phone call

Introduction:

- Set the scene. Say why you were on the train, where you were going and how you knew you were at the wrong station.

2nd paragraph:

Talk about the time before this event. Why it was important to go there. Probably about of your fear that you might be late etc..

3rd paragraph:

Talk about the present time. Your feelings. Introduce a stranger (somebody willing to help you maybe?) A phone call that solves your problem? (to whom? how?)

Conclusion

Your feelings that the problem was solved.

Time expressions:

In the beginning, at first, as soon as, at that time, at that point, and before long, after, after a while, afterwards, in the end, eventually.