

Past Perfect Continuous

Form the negative and the interrogative.

1. He had been working for hours.

.....
.....

2. They had been studying since five o'clock.

.....
.....

3. She had been learning english for two years.

.....
.....

4. Maria had been playing the guitar all day.

.....
.....

5. I hadbeen looking for my keys all day.

.....
.....

6. His grandparents had been living in this house for forty years.

.....
.....

7. Helen had been washing the car since two o'clock.

.....
.....

8. The baby had been sleeping all morning.

.....
.....

9. We had been working here for many years.

.....
.....

10. It had been snowing for two hours.

.....
.....

Fill in the gaps with Present Perfect Continuous.

1. How long ..... (you/live) in Athens?
2. Vivi ..... (not /learn) French for a long time.
3. Vaggelis ..... (go) to the gym since April.
4. How long ..... (the children/play) computer games?
5. My dad ..... (drive) the same car for 25 years.
6. Mum ..... (read) her book all evening.
7. I ..... (study) for my exams since Christmas.
8. ....(you / use) this computer for a long time?