

Future Perfect Continuous

Form the negative and the interrogative.

1. He'll have been working for three hours.

.....
.....

2. They'll have been talking for two hours.

.....
.....

3. Mum will have been cooking for four hours.

.....
.....

4. Maria will have been preparing the meal for two hours.

.....
.....

5. Jim will have been studying for six years.

.....
.....

6. I will have read the book for two months.

.....
.....

7. They will have been eating breakfast for an hour.

.....
.....

8. They will have been walking for three hours.

.....
.....

9. They will have been repairing the car for two hours.

.....
.....

10. She will have been cleaning up for two hours.

.....
.....

Fill in the gaps with Future Perfect Continuous.

1. (you/work) for 2 hours by then?
2. I (walk) for three hours.
3. They(discussing) for six hours.
4. I (learn) to swim for three weeks.
5.(write) my new book for six months.
6. She(watch) the documentary for two hours.
7. We(have) lunch for one hour.
8. The teacher (mark) the exam papers for two days.
9. They (prepare) the show for two months.
10. They(dig) a hole for three hours.