

tourists free pay education opportunity abroad donate government definitely half subsidizing sums population

1. Museums and art galleries which are to visitors cost 350 million pounds a year.
2. Nearly of these visitors come from
3. So, there is a debate now whether fees should be introduced.
4. (middle-aged lady talking) “They should be free and the reason why is because it gives everyone a fantastic for knowledge.
5. (young man) I think that all should be free.
6. (elderly lady) We really ought to something.
7. (young couple) More people would come in if it's free. And.. we did so that's really good.
- 8. Free swimming lessons were cut to fund / subsidize free admission to museums and galleries.
9. A lot of museums are free. The ones that are funded are free.
10. In London there are many visiting the museums. But in Liverpool there is a much more normal-looking that go to museums.
11. The lower - families have an opportunity to go to the museums.
12. (journalist) In effect we're tourism.
13. Tourists bring large of money to the country.

(up to minute 4:00')