

Questions:

1. What is the aim of the bill that the government has already brought before parliament?

.....
 .....
 .....

2. In what circumstances will the insurer probably not pay out if an automated car was involved in an accident?

.....
 .....
 .....
 .....

3. What technology will driverless car have to help us understand how an accident happened? How else will this technology be used?

.....
 .....
 .....
 .....

4. What laws govern whether it is going to be the insurer of the manufacturer who pays out for an accident?

.....
 .....

Vocabulary from the extract:

regulatory framework		unsound
chambers		write off
get paid out		claim compensation
carve out		it is widely anticipated
put into automated mode		negligent
relates to		a design fault
software alteration		under the bill
tinker around		consumer protection act
decline coverage knowingly
it is widely anticipated
reconstruct			