

Έχουμε τη χαρά να φιλοξενούμε τον υποψήφιο διδάκτορα
κ. Γεώργιο Χατζηαυγερινό σε μία ομιλία για τα
Στερεότυπα στα Κινούμενα Σχέδια (Marvel, Disney, Anime)
Η ομιλία απευθύνεται στους μαθητές Advanced & Proficiency
Σάββατο 20 Δεκεμβρίου 2025 | 13:30' – 14:30'

Invitation for Advanced & Proficiency Students
Saturday, 20 December 2025 | 13:30–14:30

We are delighted to invite you to an inspirational talk on:

How Popular Cartoon Characters Reflect and Influence Our Culture

Together, we will explore iconic characters from Disney, Marvel, and Anime, and discuss key themes such as:

- ✓ Gender roles and diversity, ✓ Power and status,
- ✓ Democracy and equality, ✓ Tolerance and bigotry

The talk will be delivered by Doctoral candidate Georgios Chatziavgerinos, followed by an open live discussion.

Don't miss it!

Saturday, 20 December 2025 at 13:30

At our school premises

Or join online via Mr Anthony's Digital Classroom

Georgios Chatziavgerinos is a PhD student and a Cambridge Trust Scholar at the University of Cambridge. His PhD focuses on how children's media can subvert toxic masculinity. He holds an MPhil in Education and Children's Literature from the University of Cambridge (1st) and a BA in English Language and Literature from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (1st). He likes to explore the intersections of children's literature and media, diversity, gender, and queer studies. He has been given a Latsis Foundation Scholarship for master's studies and a George and Mary Vergottis Scholarship for doctoral studies.